PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

Virginia Historical Society

AT ITS

ANNUAL MEETING

HELD IN THE

House of Delegates, December 31, 1901,

WITH THE

LIST OF OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF THE SOCIETY.

RICHMOND:
WM. ELLIS JONES, BOOK AND JOB PRINTER.
1901.

PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

Virginia Historical Society,

IN

Annual Meeting held December 31st, 1901.

The annual meeting of the Virginia Historical Society was called to assemble at the Society's House, on Saturday evening, December 28th, 1901, at 8:30 P. M., but on account of very inclement weather there was no quorum, and the meeting was adjourned until Tuesday evening, December 31st, when it was to take place in the hall of the House of Delegates, immediately before the annual address.

On the evening of December 31st, a considerable number of ladies and gentlemen being present in the hall of the House of Delegates, Mr. Joseph Bryan, President of the Society, called the meeting to order, and after stating the cause of the adjournment read

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

RICHMOND, VA., December 14, 1901.

To the Members of the Virginia Historical Society:

The Executive Committee of your Society beg to make the following report of the Society for the year ending November 9, 1901:

MEMBERSHIP.

The membership of the Society has been well maintained, and after making all required deductions, we have 768 names on the roll, an increase of two over the number last year.

FINANCIAL.

Our financial condition, while sound, does not appear as flourishing, as indicated by the balance on hand, as it really is in fact.

The Treasurer's statement shows as follows:

Balance on hand November 10, 1900		$ 652 98
RECEIPTS.
Dues	$3,133 34
Sale of Magazines	192 85
Sale of publications (books)	29 50
Life members	50 00
Interest	47 92
Advertisements	127 50
		3,581 11
		4,234 09
EXPENDITURES.
General expenses	289 65
Repairs, &c	319 25
Printing: Magazines, Catalogue, &c	1,239 85
Postage stamps, &c	116 98
Salaries	1,650 00
Wages	240 00
Binding, purchase of books, stationery, &c	83 86
Insurance	67 50
Permanent Fund	200 00
		4,207 09
Balance in State Bank November 9, 1901		27 00
		$4,234 09

The Treasurer holds on account of the Permanent Fund:

State Bank 3% certificate	$ 400 00
Virginia State bond, 3%	100 00
Mortgage running 3 years, from May 9, 1901, bearing 5%	3,000 00
Total	$3,500 00

This is an increase of $300.00 over the amount of the permanent fund in 1900.

The small balance on hand is due to the extraordinary expenditure for repairs, and also for printing the catalogue, which amounted together to over $540.82. The actual receipts for the past year were $256.64 less than the previous year, due chiefly to the failure of members to pay their dues. It would be a very great relief to the officers of the Society if some of the members would exercise more consideration in promptly paying their dues upon notice from the Treasurer. It should be remembered that this is not a money making concern and that it is entirely dependent upon the support of its members, and that we need all their aid to carry on our work.

Additions to the Library.

Since our last annual report 484 books and pamphlets have been added to the library. In addition to these a most interesting and valuable addition has been made to the department of newspapers, of which fifty bound volumes were added to the collection this year. In the number of the Magazine for next month (January, 1902) a full list of all of our newspapers will appear. Several more volumes of value will be bound during the ensuing year.

We find it too extensive, if not almost impossible, to publish at length in this report a full list of all the gifts which have been made to our Society during the past year. It would take several pages to recite them all. But we desire gratefully to acknowledge our indebtedness for these gifts to:

Mrs. James Lyons, Mrs. Charles Washington Coleman, Mr. Edward W. James, Rev. Edgar Woods, Mr. George P. Humphreys, of Rochester, N. Y., Hon. J. L. M. Curry, Mr. J. B. Thayer, of Boston, Society for the History of the Germans in Maryland, Virginia Society of Sons of the Revolution, Miss Kate Mason Rowland, Prof. C. W. Kent, Prof J. A. C. Chandler, Hon. F. R. Lassiter, Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, Mr. Worthington C. Ford, Major Powhatan Ellis, Mr. Benjamin P. Owen, Jr., Mr. R. A. Dunlop, Mr. E. J. Sellers, Mr. J. S. Moore, Rev. Greenough White, Mr. H. M. Jenkins, Mr. Alexander Brown, Mr. Miles White, Jr.

Besides the gifts of books and papers received from these donors, the Society has made additions on its own account, considerably increasing the usefulness and interest of this library.

Gifts and Loans.

A full length oil portrait of George Washington has been deposited with this Society by the representatives of the Southern Society of New York.

A portrait in crayon of Admiral French Forrest, Confederate States Navy, the senior officer from Virginia in the service, presented by his son, the Rev. Douglas F. Forrest, D. D.

Mr. John H. Herndon has presented a large collection of photographs of places of historic and antiquated interest in and about Alexandria.

There has also been presented to this Society the family Bible of Thomas Nelson, signer of the Declaration of Independence, Governor of Virginia, and commander of the Virginia troops at the seige of Yorktown.

The Misses Chamberlayne, of Richmond, who are the great grand daughters of Bishop Madison, have loaned the Society the following pictures: full length portrait of the Rt. Rev. James Madison, D. D., first Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Virginia, and president of William and Mary College; a portrait of Robert G. Scott, a distinguished lawyer of Richmond, who married Bishop Madison's daughter; a colored picture of William and Mary College in 1795.

Mr. Arthur G. Fuller, of Groton, Mass., has sent the Society a considerable collection of manuscript, chiefly of the seventeenth century, which were saved by an officer of Gen. McClellan's army when the men under his command were using the records of Charles City county for fuel.

A portrait of Mr. Wilson Cary Nicholas, believed to be by Gilbert Stuart, Governor of Virginia and United States Senator, has been loaned to the Society by Mr. Bernard Peyton, of Richmoud.

Two large photographs of Christ Church, Lancaster county, built in 1772, and the only Colonial church in the State whose interior has remained entirely unchanged, was presented by Mr. Samuel Froth, of Philadelphia.

Mr. James Parke Corbin, of Fredericksburg, has loaned the Society for the purpose of having them copied, the letter book of Colonel Richard Corbin, last Royal Receiver-General of Virginia, and an orderly book of Captain R. H. Corbin's company of militia at Norfolk in the war of 1812.

A certificate of citizenship of James Scott, of Richmond, dated 1811, and bearing a very fine impression of the great seal of the State, has been presented by Mrs. Maxwell Clarke, of Richmond.

A large photograph of St. Paul's Church, Norfolk, presented by Mr. Edward W. James, of Norfolk.

Others who have made contributions to the Society in the last year, are:

Mrs. Elizabeth C. Neff, Dr. C. J. Cleborne, U. S. N., Capt. Richard Irby, Mr. F. Robert Schell, Captain H. H. Bellas, U. S. A., Dr. B. W. Green, Mr. J. H. Benton, Miss Minnie F. Mickley, Mr. Charles Kemper, Mr. R. A. Da Costa, Miss Emily Mason, Mr. Eugene C. Massie, Miss Edith M. Beveridge.

The card catalogue of the books and manuscript has been kept up. The library has been more entensively used by members than ever before. The additions to our manuscripts have been considerable since the catalogue of 1900 was issued, and cards to these have been added numbering 875 references. The manuscripts still to be catalogued will number as many more.

We have again to thank the ladies of the several societies that meet in our building for furnishing us with a number of the leading periodicals. The best of these will be bound.

During the last year we have arranged in two large cases some of the very interesting collection of historic relics which have been either given or loaned the Society, thus making them more accessible for inspection than heretofore.

The various additions to our library make increased accomodations almost imperative.

The Publication Committee.

This committee reports the completion of the catalogue of our manuscripts, which was published as a supplement to our magazine, and has been distributed. It contains 120 pages.

The magazine has been regularly issued, and will be continued on the same general plan of devoting its pages particularly to hitherto unpublished Virginian historical documents. In the January number begins the appearance of an abridgment of the laws of Virginia, compiled in 1694. This will probably be completed in three numbers.

After its completion, it is the intention of the committee to reprint a small edition, say 300 copies, for sale to those who may wish to obtain it in this form.

In the April number will begin one of the most valuable series of papers in regard to Virginia history which we have yet undertaken. This will consist of the petitions, communications and other papers received by the General Assembly, beginning chiefly in 1774. There are a few, however, of an earlier date. The Society is indebted to Mr. J. T. Lawless, Secretary of the Commonwealth, and Mr. W. W. Scott, State Librarian, for permission to copy these documents and for facilities given us in so doing.

The committee desires especially to express its thanks to Colonel C. B. Bryant, of Martinsville, Va., for his valuable contributions from the Henry county records. It would be fortunate for the cause of Virginia history if each county could claim so intelligent and zealous a student of its records. The records of Henry county contain a most essential contribution to the history of southwest Virginia.

Deaths.

We have to report the loss during the last year by death of a number of distinguished members, the only life member being Colonel Robert Beverley, of Fauquier county. The others were:

Dr. THOMAS BOHANNON, Louisville, Ky.
CALDERON CARLISLE, Washington, D. C.
Dr. W. H. EGLE, Harrisburg, Pa.
Prof. JOHN FISKE, Cambridge, Mass.
Ex-President BENJAMIN HARRISON, Indianapolis, Ind.
JOHN T. MASON, of R., Baltimore, Md.
Hon. LUKE PRYOR, Athens, Ala.
EDWARD E. SALISBURY, New Haven, Conn.
Gen. W. S. STRIKER, Trenton, N. J.
RICHARD WALKE, Norfolk, Va.

GENERAL.

In conclusion we would say that the physical condition of the Society building has been greatly improved during the past year by the repairs already reported, while in respect to its work there is no reason to believe that interest in the Society has abated. Indeed, as we approach the time when the minds of all men will be brought back to the great settlement in Virginia in 1607, and to the tremendous results which have followed that settlement, and when the place which Virginia has occupied in the history of this country is considered, the interest in the work of this Virginia Historical Society will grow and expand. We certainly have material which cannot be gotten elsewhere, and it will be our duty to bring this to light and to spread it abroad.

JOSEPH BRYAN,
President.

December 14, 1901.

The report was, on motion, received, and, as usual, ordered to be printed in the Magazine.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The next business was the election of officers for the ensuing year.

Mr. Henry R. Pollard moved that the present officers be re-elected.

This motion was seconded, and on being put by Mr. Pollard

(as the presiding officer of the meeting was one of the nominees), was unanimously adopted.

The officers chosen are as follows:

President—Joseph Bryan.

Vice-Presidents—J. L. M. Curry, Washington, D. C.; Archer Anderson, Richmond, Va., and Virginius Newton, Richmond, Va.

Corresponding Secretary and Librarian—William G. Stanard, Richmond, Va.

Recording Secretary—David C. Richardson, Richmond, Va.

Treasurer—Robert T. Brooke, Richmond, Va.

Executive Committee—Lyon G. Tyler, Williamsburg, Va.; E. V. Valentine, Richmond, Va.; C. V. Meredith, Richmond, Va.; A. C. Gordon, Staunton, Va.; B. B. Munford, Richmond, Va.; W. Gordon McCabe, Richmond, Va.; Wm. H. Palmer, Richmond, Va.; Edward Wilson James, Norfolk, Va.; Charles W. Kent, University of Virginia; J. A. C. Chandler, Richmond, Va.; W. Meade Clark, Richmond, Va., and S. S. P. Patteson, Richmond, Va.

President Joseph Bryan then introduced Prof. J. Franklin Jameson, of the University of Chicago, who was to deliver the annual address.

Prof. Jameson's address was on "The House of Burgesses in the Eighteenth Century," and was listened to with deep interest and several times applauded.

At the conclusion, Rev. W. Meade Clark moved a vote of thanks to the speaker, which was unanimously adopted.

Mr. W. G. Stanard moved that Prof. Jameson be requested to furnish the Society with a copy of his address, which should be published at the earliest practicable period in the Virginia Magazine of History and Biography. The motion was unanimously adopted.

Then, on motion, the meeting adjourned.
